BEFORE THE STEAMBOAT TRIP

General

Our ships are cultural and technical heritage. The crew works voluntarily and all proceeds go entirely towards the maintenance of the ships.

The ships are designated as cultural heritage by the Swedish National Maritime and Transport Museums and are "Tradition" classified.

To avoid discomfort during rough seas the routes may be altered or shortened.

The ships are not adapted for the disabled.

BOHUSLÄN has onboard catering with full license to serve alcohol.

Dogs are not allowed in the eating facilities. No smoking onboard. Bicycles can be brought onboard if space permits, at a cost of 50 SEK per one-way trip. A complete timetable with prices and liability provisions is available on our website www.steamboat.se and is also posted onboard.

We reserve the right to make changes due to natural obstacles and other factors beyond the control of Sällskapet Ångbåten (the Steamboat Society).

Tickets

Tickets can be purchased in advance at www.nortic.se

Pre-purchased tickets must be presented no later than 15 minutes before departure.

Remaining tickets are sold at the gangway before departure.

When purchasing tickets in advance, table reservations can be made in the saloons during our available seatings (not applicable to all tours).

BOHUSLÄN departs from our berth at Stenpiren.

The nearest tram and bus stop is Stenpiren. Parking spaces are available nearby.

As a passenger aboard the steamboat BOHUSLÄN you contribute to the preservation of the last authentic steamer that traffics the Bohuslän coast. BOHUSLÄN is a living cultural and technological history museum.

PS - You are of course welcome to visit the engine room and also meet the Captain on the bridge.
